Dear Parents

For our first week back after the holidays, we have been searching for objects in a famous painting. The painting we looked at was called 'Sweets' by Randall Deihl, who was known for painting realistic pictures that were almost photogenic.

We asked the children to hunt for the following:-

1 traffic light, 1 woman in blue,
3 arrows, 1 flight of stairs, 2 wreaths,
2 pinky rings, the word 'drink' and the word 'push' twice.

You might need a magnifying glass to find some of the detail!!

Gala Evening

We would like to express our thanks to Mel Jacob, staff and volunteers who worked so very hard to make the Gala Evening the great success that it was. Well done also to our children and alumni. The Wiltshire Times have written a lovely piece about whole evening, which you can read here.
