Dear Mead Families,

This week Mrs Stacey and I have been delighted to welcome so many prospective families to both sites. The feedback to both of us has been extremely positive and it is a privilege to hear such positive comments about our school. I'm sure many families will have spoken to you as neighbours, so thank you as always for your support.

Next week has a Remembrance Day focus on both sites, culminating in our outdoor assembly in the respective playgrounds at 10.45am on Friday 11th November. We will be participating in the traditional silence at 11am, with Mrs Stacey leading the Wingfield assembly and myself leading the Hilperton assembly. Families are welcome to join and we will open the gates to welcome you at 10.30am if you would like to participate. Throughout next week we will be selling poppies for The Royal British Legion.

Christmas will of course close Term 2, and we are already beginning the preparations for events on both sites. Mrs Stacey is liaising with Wingfield Church and will be providing the full Wingfield Christmas programme for families early next week. The calendar on this newsletter shows the Hilperton arrangements that have been finalised.

Thank you.

Mark Stenton
Headteacher
