Dear Mead families,

I have to begin this week by saying well done to Year 6. The last four days have seen Falcons, Wolves and Y6 Hedgehogs immersed in their english and maths SATs papers and they have been an absolute credit to themselves. The calm, sensible and remarkably mature approach they have all shown is totally commendable. The teacher and TAs in the Year 6 team have been utterly amazing, as have all of the colleagues who have provided support. Let's hope that the outcomes match the effort the children have shown. We're all feeling very proud, and they've had a fun day today to celebrate their efforts throughout the week.

Year 2 SATs are also taking place and you can be assured these are done as calmly and supportively as possible by the wonderful Year 2 team. They will be completed in the remaining days of this term.

Our whole School show is fast approaching and from what I have seen and heard so far, we're in for a treat! The songs light up the school during Tuesday rehearsals and I can't wait to see the full show.
